Had Anhad I Lost My Heart To Nizam's Glance

The story highlights the gulshan-e-na-afreeda (the Uncreated Garden) that Shah Inayat spoke of, to evoke his utopian vision of a world in which the human spirit was not driven by fear, mistrust, oppression and exploitation, but rather was guided by a non-egoic spirit of connection and love.

Most couplets cannot be attributed to a particular poet due to lack of historic evidence. This authorial ambiguity is in a sense the beauty of the Oral Traditions.
