Journeys with Kabir

The Kabir Project consists of many journeys inspired by Bhakti, Sufi, and Baul poems and songs as they flow in the rural folk traditions. Spanning over two decades, our inspirations in the wisdom of these poems has taken the shape of

Chalo Hamara Des Journeys With Kabir And Friends

by SHABNAM VIRMANI

97:25 mins, 2009, available in English, Hindi, Kannada

A journey in search of the “des” (country) invoked in the poetry of Kabir, a 15th century Indian mystic, this film interweaves the stories of two people from two very different countries – Indian folk singer Prahlad Tipanya and North American scholar Linda Hess. Where is Kabir’s country?

Film by SHABNAM VIRMANI

HINDI | ENGLISH | KANNADA

In this opening sequence from the film Chalo Hamara Des, we go with Prahladji into his home turf – the villages of Malwa, Madhya Pradesh – where he has learnt, imbibed and now re-expresses Kabir in profound and inspiring ways. Here we witness his incredible capacity to engage audiences with the poems of Kabir, opening up their meanings in direct, challenging and self-reflexive ways ...more

Had Anhad I Lost My Heart To Nizam's Glance

The story highlights the gulshan-e-na-afreeda (the Uncreated Garden) that Shah Inayat spoke of, to evoke his utopian vision of a world in which the human spirit was not driven by fear, mistrust, oppression and exploitation, but rather was guided by a non-egoic spirit of connection and love.
